

TDMHDD is exploring ways to assure the department’s Web site is user-friendly and includes information that is helpful and informative to the public and to organizations that interact with the department. We value your ideas and solicit your input and would appreciate your response to the questions listed below.

You may print this message, enter responses and fax to 615-741-6557, or you may call Mark Davis in the TDMHDD Office of Public Information and Education at 615-741-3379.

1. Overall, how helpful or useful do you find the TDMHDD Internet Web site?

(Least helpful) 1 2 3 4 5 (Most helpful)

2. What do you find most useful about the current the site?

3. If the site is revised, what site content would you suggest be retained?

4. What content would you suggest be added to the site?

Additional Comments:

(Optional):

Name: _____

Organization: _____

Telephone: _____

Email address: _____

